

Cookiepolicy

We use cookies to improve the user experience on our website. By accepting cookies, you agree that RICKLUNDGÅRDEN may use cookies in the manner specified below.

A cookie is a small text file that is placed on your device: mobile, computer or tablet. The cookie recognizes the type of content you have searched for and the pages you have visited on our website. Information stored with the help of a cookie can be how you use our website, what type of browser you use and which pages you have visited.

Cookies make it possible for us to provide you as a visitor with better service and to be able to measure the number of visitors to the website and see usage patterns. We can also store information about your specific preferences, so that we can adapt our website to your individual interests.

We forward cookies and other information from your device to our partners. They may in turn combine the information with other information that you have provided or that they have collected when you have used their services.

Detailed description of the cookies we use.

A permanent cookie stays on your computer for a long time. A session cookie is temporarily stored in the memory while you are on our website. The session cookie disappears when you close your browser. We use both permanent cookies and session cookies. RICKLUNDGÅRDEN also uses third-party cookies. A third-party cookie is a cookie where the sender comes from a domain other than the one the user is visiting. The cookie thus has a domain name sender that differs from the url that the website has.

RICKLUNDGÅRDEN uses cookies to collect aggregate data about the number of visitors, the visitors' operating system, browser, time on the page, new versus returning customers, etc. This data is not used to personally identify you but so that we can provide you with the most relevant service and keep statistics.

If you want to know more about which cookies we use, you can contact us at:

How do I change my cookie settings?

If you do not want our website to place cookies on your computer, you can deactivate cookies in your browser. Visit your browser's help pages for more information on this. If you deactivate cookies, the functionality of our website will be limited.

How do I change my consent?

If you have questions or comments about our cookie policy or want to change or withdraw your consent to cookies on our website, please contact:
